CARRANBALLAC COLLEGE PARENTS AND FRIENDS

Mission Statement

Carranballac College Parents and Friends seeks to work collaboratively with the school community, in a positive manner, to support the holistic development of students and the school environment.

Statement of Purpose

The Carranballac College Parents and Friends is a parent representative body which has supported the College and provided enthusiastic parental participation since 2012.

The objectives of the of the Parents and Friends are in keeping with the College Mission Statement which aims to encourage students to be confident, capable and respected citizens of our local and global community. As our College motto states “To Be the Best We can Be”

The Carranballac College Parents and Friends aims to foster the words of the school song: “Carranballac College is the place for me, it’s a school and community where I love to be”

The Carranballac College Parents and Friends seeks to (in no particular order):

- Serve as an avenue for parents to become involved in school activities
- Provide a medium for the promotion of a spirit of community, connectedness and mutual support at Carranballac College.
- Provide a medium of information and involvement for parents/carers in their children’s education and the College community
- Be a true partnership between parents and the College
- Raise funds for the College
- Support the Carranballac College School Council

The Parents and Friends provides a valuable forum for parents and caregivers to discuss the issues impacting on their childrens’ education. The Association meets twice a term in the Boardwalk Campus Staff Room. Meeting dates are in the College Calendar.
